SATURDAY SESSION

But Little Was Done
In the Upper House.

EMMELUTH ON THE WAR PATH

This Time the Acting Governor
Must Go—Routine Proceedings in the House.

It was quite "frosty" in the Senate Chamber last Saturday morning. The solons took their seats in silence, dispensing with the usual courtesies that had prevailed in the past. There was an air of expectancy hovering around, as a great time had been promised, as a result of the Senators' action on Friday.

The Senate did not convene until 10:15, and after the reading of the journal, Senator Achi moved to strike out all that portion of the journal after the adjournment had been declared by President Kaiue. Senator Carter seconded the motion. The Independents made a vigorous effort to have the journal approved.

Senator Kalauokalani moved the journal be approved. Seconded by Senator Kanuha.

Senator Achi moved the ayes and noes be called on his motion. The motion carried, as follows: Ayes, Senator Achi, C. Brown, Carter, Crabbe, Kaiue, Paris and White, 7. Noes, Kanuha, Kahiliua, Kalauokalani, Kaohi, Naka-apuue and Russel, 6.

Senator J. Brown voted "kanalua." On C. Brown's motion, seconded by Achi, the journal was approved as read.

A message from Acting Governor Cooper was then read, submitting for consideration by the Senate, estimates for the payment of unpaid bills, which was referred to the committee on public expenditures.

"I move the suspension of the rules," shouted Russel at this juncture. "In order I may introduce a resolution."

"I move we adjourn," said Senator Crabbe, which was quickly seconded, and as quickly lost upon the call of the show of hands.

Senator Kalauokalani then moved the majority report be adopted. Cecil Brown moved the ayes and noes be called upon the motion. The vote resulted in a tie. The chair then announced the report was not approved. The majority report was then taken up, and it went the way of its predecessor.

Senator Brown then moved to adjourn until 10 a. m., Monday. The motion was lost.

Senator Kanuha then proposed, as the Senate was in a deadlock over the matter, the two reports be handed over to the lower house and have them act on it.

The Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the items in the Appropriation bill under the head of Judiciary Department, commencing with item 380, and ending with item 402, reported as follows:

Item 380, expenses of Supreme and Circuit Courts to include pay of Grand Jurors at the same rate as trial jurors, $36,000. We recommend it be stricken out, and the following items be inserted in its place:

Expenses Supreme Court, $1,500; supplies and incidentals for all courts to be expended under the direction of the clerk to the Judiciary Department, $2,500; expenses Circuit Court, First Circuit, $15,000; expenses Circuit Court, Second Circuit, $5,000; expenses Circuit Court, Third Circuit, $4,000; expenses Circuit Court, Fourth Circuit, $5,000; expenses Circuit Court, Fifth Circuit, $4,000; making a total sum of $38,000; being $2,000 more than asked for. The reason of the increase is that the change in our jury system and the inaugurating of the Grand Jury has increased the expenses of all Circuit Courts. The expenses of the last May term of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit were in the neighborhood of $2,000, and as there are four terms a year, the estimate is based upon the cost of that term. Upon the suggestion of the Chief Justice, the expenses of each Circuit Court for the other circuits have each been set apart for the reason that each Judge will then know what sum of money is set apart for the expenses of his circuit. Heretofore the expenses have all been taken out of the lump appropriation, and each Circuit Judge was notified by the clerk of the Judiciary Department how much of such lump appropriation was to be used by him. The sums recommended are expected to be sufficient, and are based upon data and the expenses of the different circuits, received since the Grand Jury system has been in practice in the Territory.

Item 382, purchase of law books, Supreme Court, we recommend pass as in the bill.

Item 383, purchase of law books for other circuits, we recommend pass at $500, the same as heretofore allowed for that purpose.

Item 385 we recommend pass as in the bill.

Item 386, compiling and publishing Digest Hawaiian Reports, we recommend be stricken out for economy's sake, and for the further reason that it is not a necessary nor a needed work at the present time.

Item 387, we recommend be changed to read, "Stationery, incidentals and traveling expenses of District Magistrates, $3,000."

By doing this, items 388, 391, 394, 397, 399 and 401 can all be stricken out at a saving of some $400.

Items 390, 393 and 395 we recommend pass as in the bill. The money here appropriated is used by the Judges of the several circuits in paying the traveling and other expenses caused by holding of the terms of court in different places of such circuits, and away from the permanent residence of such court.

We therefore recommend that this re-

LEGISLATIVE FOLLY MAY BRING ON ANOTHER PLAGUE

The recent action of the House of Representatives in doing away with the positions of bacteriologist, pathologist, three sanitary inspectors, assistant clerk, stenographer, inspector of plumbing and assistant to the same, has caused considerable comment, especially among the physicians of this city. One of them, in speaking of the matter, said yesterday:

"To my mind, the whole matter has resolved itself into this: The Hawaiian legislators are starting out with a set purpose of knifing every position held by a haole, regardless of what the result will be to the public welfare. For some time, I understand, there has been considerable friction between certain members of the Board of Health, and this decision, I am satisfied, is but the outcome of that condition of affairs. It is said that there are some members who are playing both ends against the middle, so to speak. In other words, when these persons or person, as the case may be, finds out the mind of the board, outsiders are at once informed, and an attempt is made to frustrate their plans. It will be noticed that in the cutting of salaries, and the doing away with positions, no place is dispensed with that is, or may be held by a native. This is true in the present instance. The office of the secretary, held by a brother of Robert Wilcox, remains unaffected. Governor Dole has been accused by these same people with being an offensive partisan, but he has not made racial lines the ones for making appointments, the Department of Public Works and the Treasury Department both testify to his broad-mindedness in this regard.

"Under the conditions that will be inaugurated, there will be nothing in the economy of things to ward off another plague. There will be no public officer to see that suspicious causes of death are looked into. Even if this is done by private individuals as far as they are able, or the general practitioner, there are no definite means of arriving at a definite conclusion. Things will move along in a hit-or-miss sort of way, until some time the city of Honolulu wakes up to the fact she has another plague on her hands. There has been one plague here; there is no reason to assume that such a port for the reasons above set forth be adopted.

CECIL BROWN.
WM. WHITE.
C. L. CRABBE.

Honolulu, June 6, 1901.

Senator Brown moved the report be adopted. Senator Achi moved the ayes and noes be called on it, which resulted in a vote of 7 to 6. Senator J. C. Brown voting in the affirmative.

Senator Russel once more sprang to his feet, on a question of privilege, saying he had charges to prefer against the chair.

"Mr. President," said Senator Carter, "that is not a question of privilege. That does not concern the Senator personally."

"I beg your pardon," replied Senator Russel, "it does concern me. If the chair goes on acting the way he did yesterday, I cannot remain on this floor."

condition of things may not repeat themselves. Assuming, as is perfectly reasonable to do, that there should be another plague, there would be poor means at best of taking steps to prevent the spread of the contagion. The animus which is back of the whole matter reveals itself in the fact that the legislators have eradicated only those places which they knew Hawaiians were unable to fill. In passing, a word might be said for the members of the Board of Health, who are serving without pay. They have no other reward than the fact that they know, as professional men, that they have done what they could towards preserving the public health and happiness of their fellow men. How much they do in this way that the world at large knows nothing of, is hard to say.

"Such an action as this, that has been done by narrow minded men, who have been actuated by race prejudice, is sufficient cause for remonstrance on the part of the people of this Territory. The Chamber of Commerce should take some action, if for no other reasons than financial ones; humanitarian considerations, for the time, being dispensed with. The people of Honolulu have hardly recovered from one plague, and the conditions which will result, if we have no safeguard by which to stay the onslaught of disease in a place like this, can be easily imagined.

"The Moana will have many imitators, in case the present condition of things, for which the Legislature is preparing us, is carried to its logical conclusion. The action of the British Steamship Company is plainly an indication that the health of this city is not above suspicion. With such things staring us in the face, it is the height of foolishness, it seems to me, to lessen our precautionary measures. The expenses that will result from having these positions, may seem large upon first sight, but when they are compared with the expenses that will be added to the public indebtedness, in case we have a visitation of cholera, bubonic plague, or something of a similar nature, they will seem so trivial as to be unworthy of notice. Again, even if we are not visited by something of this kind, we will have the satisfaction of knowing that we took all the safeguards that should have been taken by any civilized, enlightened community in having these positions, and having them filled by competent men."

"Well, if you can't stand the floor," remarked Senator Carter, "get up on your chair, or better still, get up on the desk."

"Now, now, Mr. Carter," retorted Russel, "don't get funny. I can't stand any such actions from the president as occurred here yesterday."

"Well, for heaven's sake," fervently exclaimed Senator C. Brown, "go back to Hilo."

"Is that your opinion?" asked Russel. "Well, we'll see. This question is for the House to decide."

"You cannot attack any member of this Senate under a question of privilege," declared C. Brown. "It is unparliamentary and unheard of."

"I move we adjourn," said Senator Achi, evidently scenting trouble if the session continued much longer.

The president put the motion, and upon the show of hands, declared the House adjourned until 10 a. m. today. Adjourned at 11:32.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE HOUSE

Nothing of exceptional interest occurred in the House on Saturday, unless it was that Emmeluth introduced two resolutions, both reflecting upon the official integrity of Acting Governor Cooper.

During the morning Acting Governor Cooper sent a message to the House, in which he presented an itemized list of unpaid bills standing against the Territorial government. The summarization of the accounts read as follows:

Public Works	$10,021.00
Loans unpaid on account of loan money being exhausted	63,674.33
Treasury	454.45
General expenses, Board of Health	1,509.40
Plague expenses, Board of Health	7,504.87
Total	$83,664.05

The message had no sooner been read than Emmeluth arose and after criticizing the action of Mr. Cooper and Governor Dole for sending in the message at this time, when it should have, he claimed, been sent in during the regular session. The following resolution was introduced by the speaker:

"Resolved, that the message of the Acting Governor be laid on the table to be considered at the next extra session."

Upon this, a discussion followed, whether or not the House could consistently pass the resolution, as it had already ordered one message from the Acting Governor printed and distributed to the different members of the House. The message was finally tabled, and Emmeluth, "to expedite matters," as he expressed it, followed up resolution number one by another which read after this fashion:

"Whereas, by reason of public notice, Henry E. Cooper, Secretary of the Territory, has been performing the duties of Governor of this Territory, and

"Whereas, the time which has elapsed since such publication has permitted the Governor's return to this city in sufficient good health to be daily seen on the streets thereof, and

"Whereas, the functions of government make it desirable that the various officers thereunder be separately administered, now be it therefore resolved, that the clerk of this House be instructed to communicate with the Acting Governor of the Territory and inquire of him the nature and extent of the disability under which the Governor of the Territory may at this time be incapacitated for the duties of his office, and what the prospects are at this time for the resumption of the duties of his office by the Governor."

talking, in which Kekaula exercised considerable amusement by saying that the public health commission should have the Governor and his personal examination of the House adjourned at the hour of 10 o'clock this morning.
